

Conduct Agreement:

The Chicago Zoological Society welcomes you to Brookfield Zoo and wants to ensure that you have the best experience while you are here. To ensure that all Brookfield Zoo visitors have the same opportunity for an enriching experience, the Society requires that all groups follow simple guidelines for behavior while at the zoo. By entering the zoo, you agree to these guidelines and assume responsibility in the name of your organization for the behavior of your group. By booking your field trip, you affirm your responsibility for the group while it is at the zoo.

Expectations:

1. Your group(s) should have at least one adult supervisor for each 5 to 10 students. Students (K-12) must be with an adult supervisor at all times.
2. Your organization will be accountable for the behavior of your groups at the zoo.
3. All groups are expected to comply with the following rules and such other regulations that may be adopted by the Society. The organization accepting responsibility for a visiting group accepts financial responsibility for any damages resulting from non-compliance.
  - Do not feed, annoy, or harass the animals.
  - Avoid conflicts with other groups.
  - Place all trash and recycling in containers.
  - Do not pick or damage vegetation.
  - Do not play loud music.
  - Bicycling, skateboarding, roller or in-line skating, scooters, and ball playing are not allowed in the zoo.
