

Reptiles, Birds, Fish, Mammals, and Amphibians, Oh My!

There are many different types of animals at Brookfield Zoo. Can you tell them apart? Write the name or draw an example of an animal for each clue.

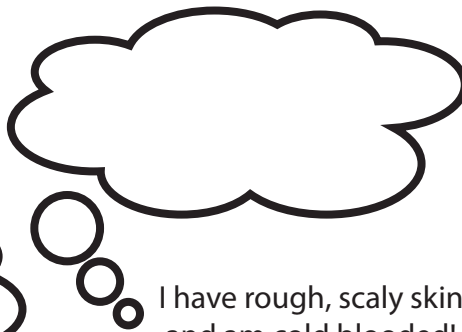

I have sleek, soft feathers and many of us can fly, but not all!
Who am I?

I have soft, fluffy fur and, as a baby, I drink milk!
Who am I?

I have smooth, slimy skin and can live in water or on land!
Who am I?

I have rough, scaly skin and am cold blooded!
Who am I?

I have smooth scales and love to swim in rivers, lakes, and oceans!
Who am I?

My favorite reptile at the zoo was _____,
because he/she was _____ and _____.

My favorite mammal at the zoo was _____,
because he/she was _____ and _____.

My favorite bird at the zoo _____,
because he/she was _____ and _____.

My favorite fish at the zoo _____,
because he/she was _____ and _____.

My favorite amphibian at the zoo was _____,
because he/she was _____ and _____.

I Spy with My Little Eye...

There are many amazing animals at Brookfield Zoo. As you walk around today look for animals with these great adaptations or abilities!

An animal that has stripes _____

An animal that is your favorite color _____

An animal that has fins _____

An animal that has scales _____

An animal that has BIG ears _____

An animal that has horns/antlers _____

An animal that is sleeping _____

An animal that likes to hop _____

An animal that likes to climb _____

An animal with wings _____

An animal with a long tail _____

An animal that likes to swim _____

An animal with a hard shell _____

An animal that has feathers _____

An animal that has a long neck _____

My Favorite Animal at the Zoo

There are many amazing animals at Brookfield Zoo.
Which one is your favorite?

My favorite animal at the zoo is a/an

What does your favorite animal look like?

What does your favorite animal like to eat?

What does your favorite animal like to do?

Draw a picture of your favorite animal here: